Major General Sir Ian Jacob
Director, BBC Overseas Service
Broadcasting House
London, W. 1., England

Dear General Jacob:

[redacted] of the FBIS has just returned from a visit to the BBC Monitoring Service and has told me that Campbell Wynne, Malcolm Frosts' Deputy, has left the BBC service.

STAT

As you no doubt know, we, who have come in contact with Captain Wynne, are genuinely fond of him and have always had the greatest respect for his sound judgement in dealing with our mutual monitoring problems. He will be missed by my people at Caversham as well as by me personally.

Will you be good enough to pass this appreciation along to him with my best wishes for continued success in his new assignment and assurance that he will always have a warm welcome if he has the occasion to be in Washington.

Sincerely,

STAT
